I'll start with thanking you for taking the time to read about this years offering and a bit about or philosophy. I really appreciate you taking the time to consider us as a genetic supplier for your operation.

This year has been about reflection for me and our team. Last spring wasn't a lot of fun for any of us. It's not always easy, keeping these calves alive and healthy. The challenge in this business is real and as a breeder we take our responsibilities very seriously. Last year's winter and spring made me start thinking about what really matters for commercial cow-calf operation.

I would like to start with a disclosure, I have no problem with EPDs in their pure form. Truly, what an outstanding tool to be able to gauge phenotypic traits that over time will paint a picture of where that bull or cow lands on the bell shaped curve. Therefore, allowing you to use that information to breed appropriately. The problem I have is that I feel as an industry we have taken it too far, added way too many indexes, and it has become confusing and misleading for producers. When a five-year-old bull has been used in 15 different herds, and the data has been turned in accurately, I will believe in those EPD's and trust the data that it presents and use that information accordingly. But selling yearling bulls just based off their spread on paper doesn't have anything to do with keeping cow calf guys in the business. If you really study the EPDs, the bulls that stand the test of time are balanced in all traits and not extreme anywhere. I feel that we need to breed for as much performance as your environment will allow and make sure we don't mess up these cows in the process. I still have yet to find anything more valuable than a 10-year-old cow that breeds on time every year and drags home a big calf in the fall. With that, you'll notice a few changes in our catalog this year. We are only printing 7 epds that are backed by phenotypic data. All of the actual measurements will be available to you.

We have decided to simplify some of this stuff because I think it sometimes clouds what really matters. For us, this is simple. Our cows must be structurally sound and made correctly. They have to get pregnant, have to have instincts and mother their calf, and must bring home a big calf in the fall. Most importantly, I don't wanna have to mess with them as she should do it on her own. There is not a bull in the sale that isn't out of an honest cow. Some are better than others, but they're all honest. Cows that you can handle and know how to be good moms. With that if you look at the performance in our bulls, they will go and compete with anybody.

In conclusion, I just want to say Thank You for taking the time to consider us and, if given an opportunity, we would love to put our cattle to work for you in your environment and see how they stack up. If you ever need anything, please do not hesitate to call as that helps us understand your goals. Your success is our success and we'd like to earn your business. The Bulls are available to view anytime so if you want to stop in prior to the sale, just reach out to one of us.

Thanks Again, Jordan Rhodes

We are starting off with the Blueprints this year because of the consistency from top to bottom. With that being said this is an exceptional individual. His mother is a beautiful young cow that shows lots of promise. This bull is moderate, easy fleshing, and heavy muscled. He stands on all four corners, is sound, and excellent structured. Should be a surefire heifer bull and the one that you keep every female sired by.

Committed to producing cattle that thrive for the commercial cow calf producer.

This Blueprint is a lot like the leadoff bull with a little more punch. He is out of the same cow family as Lot 1, and those cattle have been incredibly productive for us. Lot 2 is wide-based and easy fleshing with traditional Angus characteristics.

This bull is a bit younger, but don't overlook him. His mother is a beautiful young cow. He won't be as big as some of the other bulls, but he has a really nice pattern and I think he will mature quite nicely.

This XO's is a stud. He has crest and testosterone and a really cool look. He is wide-based and good moving and is sure to be a cow maker. If you're into good cattle rather than numbers consider this calf. I'll also promise you that he has more performance than 79 pounds of yearling weight EPD. This is a good heifer bull.

One of the sale highlights of the season. It's hard to find one that is this easy doing and stout. This guy is one to get excited about and we will use him back in the program heavily over the next couple of years. He offers an outcross pedigree with great traditional breed characteristics. He is wide muzzled, wide butted and still gets out and moves like he should. We are excited about his potential.

Somebody's got to be last, but this guy fits right in.

ALSO SELLING 40 COMMERCIAL HEIFERS IN GROUPS OF 5!

heifers

After lots of consideration, I decided this year that we would offer all of our natural born heifer calves. For any of you that know me personally you know that it is not easy for me to let these females go. We have really committed to producing honest females that raise top notch bulls and wean a high percentage of their body weight. Though some are maybe bigger or stouter than others the females in this offering from top to bottom are going to be honest cows. Females designed to breed back and be trouble free. I trust these heifers will do that.

Pictures and Videos will be available on dvauction and on our facebook page.

Please reach out to me on the phone if you would like to talk about a specific cow family.

Every year we try to put something on our offering that we can donate to something for our local community. This year we have decided to donate to the Faulk County Saddle club. Joe, Christy and several others have made a great commitment to work the grounds and it has been a place this past summer where our community can come together and enjoy horsemanship. It brings me great joy to see young ranch kids off their phone's and on a horse learning and laughing together. This heifer is a nice made Resource daughter out of an 8 year cow that has done a really nice job. She is designed to last and will make a really nice cow.
